

Places & Spaces Scavenger Hunt

New Jersey is home to many different architecture styles. Which of these styles can you find in your neighborhood? Check off each style when you find it.

Designed for ages 8 and up.

Colonial	Victorian	Cape Cod

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Symmetrical - Rectangular boxy shape - Two stories 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asymmetrical - Front porches - Curved towers and turrets 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Symmetrical - Steep roof - One or two rooms on the second floor

Split Level	Contemporary	Tudor

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asymmetrical - Floors are staggered and connected by short flights of stairs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asymmetrical - Odd shapes and angles - Large windows 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Triangles outlined in wood - Steep roof - Looks like a storybook house

Neoclassical	Shotgun	Ranch

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Symmetrical - Tall columns by front door - Decorations above the front door 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Long and narrow, only one room wide - Usually has a small front porch 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asymmetric - One story house - Low-pitched roof - Sometimes L or U shaped

Draw a design for your dream home here. How would you describe it?

Post a photo of your drawing on Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter and tag @mammontclair with the hashtag #MAMScavengerHunt to be featured.